The Secretary (Agri.) will be the Member Secretary of the Committee.

3. The above Committee is meant for managing the change in the trade environment by creating a convergence in planning and action among all principal stakeholders. The following will be the terms of reference of the Committe:

(i) To bring about convergence and synergy among all on-going programmes supported by State and Central Governments and by bilateral and multilateral agencies with a view to derive the maximum beneficial impact from the available resources from the point of view of trade competitiveness.

(ii) To monitor trends in home and external markets.

(iii) To initiate pro-active action, particularly to avoid/mitigate distress to farm and labour families.

(iv) To take steps to shift to an era of precision farming in order to maximize factor productivity and minimize cost of cultivation.

(v) To promote trade and IPR literacy through the mass media.

(vi) To provide policy oversight to the proposed Virtual University for Agricultural Trade and the reconstituted State Land Use Board.

(vii) To suggest steps on the on-going basis to strengthen the livelihood security of small farm families and agricultural labour.

By Order of the Governor,

C. RAMACHANDRAN,
